

TOMMY FORD

Having learned the building trade from his father, Tommy Ford founded his namesake company in 1965. He taught everything he knows about construction to his own son, who has worked side-by-side with him for more than 30 years.

Tommy is an Honored Life Director for the Dallas Builders Association, the Texas Association of Builders, and the National Association of Home Builders. He won the Hugh Prather Award - the highest award given by the Dallas Builders Association – in 2002. He also was named Philanthropist of the Year for the Texas Association of Builders in 2009 and received that organization’s highest honor - the Ted Schlossman Lifetime Achievement Award - in 2012.

Tommy is a founding member of the Texas Builders Foundation, which in an effort to support the future of the Texas building industry, provides college scholarships to students pursuing a degree related to construction or engineering. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Texas Home Builders Foundation.

Tommy’s favorite aspect of the building business is being on the job site each day and scrutinizing even the smallest details - ensuring the company’s reputation for excellence continues.

COREY FORD

Corey is a third-generation homebuilder who has the pleasure of working alongside both his father and sister each day. He has worked in the construction industry for more than 30 years. Corey is a Certified Graduate Builder (CGB), a member of the Dallas Home Builders Association, the Texas Association of Builders (TAB) and the National Association of Home Builders. Corey was named an Honored Life Director for the Dallas Builders Association (DBA) in 2012. Corey enjoys the collaboration and teamwork that results from his work as liaison between his customers and the entire construction team.

JANA FORD MCALLISTER

Jana worked part-time at Tommy Ford while studying business in college. She began her career as a teacher, but felt a calling to rejoin the family business full-time in 2000. Jana’s focus is the business side of the company. She’s passionate about keeping all business operations streamlined to ensure the best bottom line and an enjoyable homebuilding experience for customers.